

Figure: 40 TAC Chapter 700, Subchapter F

Current Rules: Title 40. Social Services and Assistance Part 19. Department of Family and Protective Services Chapter 700. Child Protective Services	Transferred to: Title 40. Social Services and Assistance Part 19. Department of Family and Protective Services Chapter 707. Child Protective Investigations
Subchapter F. Release Hearings	Subchapter A. Investigations
	Division 3. Release Hearings
§700.601. What do the following words and terms mean when used in this subchapter?	§707.571. What do the following words and terms mean when used in this subchapter?
§700.602. When may DFPS release information about a designated perpetrator to outside parties?	§707.573. When may DFPS release information about a designated perpetrator to outside parties?
§700.603. What are the requirements for a designated perpetrator when DFPS releases information to outside parties?	§707.575. What are the requirements for a designated perpetrator when DFPS releases information to outside parties?
§700.604. When must DFPS arrange a release hearing for a designated perpetrator?	§707.577. When must DFPS arrange a release hearing for a designated perpetrator?
§700.605. What happens after a designated perpetrator requests a release hearing?	§707.579. What happens after a designated perpetrator requests a release hearing?
§700.606. How is a release hearing conducted?	§707.581. How is a release hearing conducted?
§700.607. What actions may an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) take regarding a finding of Child Protective Services (CPS)?	§707.583. What actions may an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) take regarding a finding of Child Protective Services (CPS)?
§700.608. What happens if the designated perpetrator fails to appear at the release hearing?	§707.585. What happens if the designated perpetrator fails to appear at the release hearing?